

WEBER COUNTY DAY AT THE STATE FAIR

account also of the number of excellent pieces which he presented at this exhibition. One of the most attractive of his collection is a landscape in oil, called "Afternoon Clouds," and a number of lovely water colors, in which the tone, color and play of light and shade is especially delightful. This display was the center of a large group of admirers.

A collection of four exquisite outdoor scenes in oil by Willis A. Adams, a Park City artist, attracted a good deal of attention because of the brilliant color effects which were, nevertheless, spread with chasteness and with beautiful avoidance of glaring effects.

Beauregard's Pictures.

The oil portraits, "The Bath" and "The Oilman," by Donald Beauregard, an artist recently from Europe, were the objects of much comment, as were also "The Adoration of Ages," "The Morning Hour" and a study in corn by J. T. Harwood, and a study of work by a young lady from Provo, a girl hardly out of her teens, and yet exhibiting considerable ability to depict nature in some of her unusual moods. "The Washroom," painted by Miss Bessie Eastman. This piece was especially attractive and received much attention from critics.

Mary Teasdel, an artist who has not exhibited before for a number of years, presented a large collection of oil domestic scenes, some of which are very lovely. "The Flax Spinner" and some of the portraits of children and young people, although a representation of City Creek Canyon in Autumn" showed something of the ability of the artist. "A Bowl of Panacea," by Mrs. Lydia Hill, and a painting of a beautiful crimson tiger lily by Lewis A. Ramsey were among the attractive paintings of flowers. Florence Shaffer's "Carnations" and "Sunflowers," and Mrs. Edna Wall's "Clematis" showed brilliant work and attention to detail. Mahonri M. Young exhibited a good collection, especially noticeable among which was one piece called "Thrushes." Several portraits by Lee Greene Richards and a portrait of Mrs. Wilcox by Lewis A. Ramsey excited favorable comment.

Special mention should be made of the "Roses" of Mrs. Mary A. Weynick, which exhibited careful attention to details and conscientious work.

Other Classes of Work.

In the sculptures appear the names of M. M. Young, J. Leo Fairbanks, Torleif S. Knappus, Miss Arta Banta and Mrs. E. F. Snyder. Miss Hattie Carter and Miss Ruby Lee, Miss Adah Betz, Mrs. Edith Cummings, Miss Florence Grant and Mrs. W. Van Rensselaer. Davis also exhibited collections of wonderful, daintily painted china.

In the department of art and crafts an exhibit of tool and colored leather by Miss Florence Grant was unique and work of that sort has never been displayed at any fair here before. Miss Louise Jennings presented a number of designs of wonderful lace effects that seemed almost real. The wood carving of Mrs. John Lovell, and especially of David Hughes of the agricultural college, exhibited a number of specimens of beautiful work. Much of the pyrography, especially an ornamental card file by W. S. Zimmerman and some leather effects by Mrs. Christian Nielsen, was unusually attractive and showed commendable care and attention to detail. H. W. Dennett displayed a curious effect in a handkerchief case designed entirely of cigar butts.

The collection of photographs are a special attraction to visitors, and some of the dainty colored ones were unusually beautiful. The work of Thomas O. Shedd, Kate Wells was also especially commendable in that line of work.

It is impossible to mention everything that was good, however, for the collections are large and visitors who are interested in the fine arts will find a beautiful display and one well worth the time and study a careful survey of the exhibition will entail.

A POLICEMAN'S LOT

May Be a Happy One After All.

An Ill. Ex. Chief of Police found an easy and safe way out of the hills caused by coffee. He says:

"I suffered intensely from heart trouble and nervousness for five years, and thought treated by some of the best physicians in this city, did not get permanent relief until I changed from coffee to Postum."

"A friend of my family was visiting at our house and seeing my condition, insisted that coffee was at the bottom of my trouble. I confess I was skeptical but promised to try Postum in place of coffee."

"It was nearly three weeks before I noticed much of any change, as my case was a bad one. Then I saw that my nervousness was gradually disappearing. A little later I was able to sleep a part of the night on my left side, something I had been unable to do for five years at least."

"I kept on using Postum and the result is, so far as heart trouble and nervousness are concerned, I am a well man."

"The best proof is that I am writing this with my own hand, a thing I was unable to do for several years prior to the change from coffee to Postum."

"There's a Reason."
